DAY 1 & 2

DELHI

On your arrival at the airport in Delhi you will be met and transferred to your hotel, then it's up to you, spend the rest of your day exploring or relaxing before devoting day 2 to soaking up the fascinating sights and sounds of Delhi on our full day tour.

Delhi's mix of old and new is sure to awaken the senses. Emerge yourself in Old Delhi and find the energy and colour of this walled city pulsating with the hustle and bustle of bazaars and narrow lanes which twist and turn between tall, leaning houses. Contrast old with new as you enter cosmopolitan New Delhi, Luyten's landscaped city. It is known for its formal parks, the Rashtrapati Bhawan (the official residence of the President of India designed by Sir Edwin Lutyen) and the India Gate. Visit the Qutab Minar, the 72.5 m high tower dating back to 13th century and Humanyun's Tomb, built in the 16th century and architecturally the fore runner of the Taj Mahal.

Today you will transfer to Satpura National Park, boarding an early morning flight to Bhopal and finishing the trip by road.

Satpura Highlights

- Walking safaris
- Elephant safaris
- Canoe and boat safaris

Satpura National Park is one of Central India's least visited parks. Here you will experience the feeling of being one of the first visitors to explore the dense sal and teak forests in search of sloth bears, gaur and leopard. The park is located in Madhya Pradesh and part of the Panchmarchi Biosphere Reserve that includes Bori wildlife sanctuary and Panchmarhi wildlife sanctuary. The park's terrain is rugged with an elevation reaching 1,352m and consisting of sandstone peaks, narrow gorges, ravines, waterfalls, streams and dense forests. Here you might see sloth bears, black buck, porcupine and the rare Indian giant squirrel. Satpura may not be the best park to see the elusive Bengal tiger but the opportunity to join a walking safari means you can get close to nature and experience the jungle in what will be an exciting experience

Pench National Park was the inspiration for Kipling's classic novel, "The Jungle Book". Pench is located in the Central Indian state of Madhya Pradesh and is the 19th Project Tiger Reserve established in 1992. It's one of the best-kept secrets among wildlife enthusiasts who have long been acquainted with and entranced by its variety of flora and fauna. The area is dominated by open canopies of mixed forest, predominantly teak and open grassy patches. No wonder it boasts the highest density of herbivores in any Indian park including chital (spotted deer) and sambar favourite prey of the mighty tiger.

You can also expect to see a large diversity of other wildlife, including leopard, jungle cat, dhole (wild dog), sloth bear, wild boar, mongoose, and gaur.

- Dhole

Tadoba Andheri Tiger Reserve is Maharashtra's oldest and largest National Park and one of India's 41 tiger reserves.

Here you'll search for one of Tadoba's tigers which are thought to number around 70, as well as leopard, sloth bear, gaur, nilgai, dhole, striped hyena, small Indian civet, jungle cat, sambar, barking deer, chital, and chausingha all accompanied by a resident naturalist and forest guide in 4x4 Jeep. Don't forget to ask your guide about the God Taru. Legend holds that Taru was a village chief who was killed in a mythological encounter with a tiger.
